REGISTRATION FOR PRIVATE CANDIDATES

Modes of Registration

Private candidates can register for the N(T)-, N(A)-, O- and/or A-Level through the Singapore Examinations and Assessment Board (SEAB) internet website at <http://www.seab.gov.sg> from 7 Mar 2011 to 19 Mar 2011.

Payment of Examination Fees

Payment is to be made at SingPost office between 26 Mar 2011 and 4 Apr 2011 either by cash or NETs. Alternatively, payment can also be made through Self-service Automated Machines (S.A.M.).

Amendments and Late Entry

- 1 Candidates are advised to check their registration details carefully before submission.
- 2 During the registration period (7 Mar 2011 to 19 Mar 2011), private candidates can make amendments to their subject/paper entries online without any amendment charges.
- 3 After the registration period, requests for amendments can only be made in writing to SEAB via email (contact@moe.gov.sg) or by post (Address: 298, Jalan Bukit Ho Swee, Singapore 169565 Attn: Operations Division – Private Candidate Registration). However, candidates have to make all outstanding payments prior to making any request for amendment. An amendment fee of $20 is payable in addition to the new subject fee. SEAB will not accept requests for amendment made after 27 May 2011.
- 4 Candidates who register after the last day of the registration period, 19 Mar 2011, will be charged a late entry fee of $50. Late entry requests can only be made in writing to SEAB via email (contact@moe.gov.sg) or by post (Address: 298, Jalan Bukit Ho Swee, Singapore 169565 Attn: Operations Division – Private Candidate Registration). SEAB will not accede to any request for registration after 27 May 2011.

Mid-Year Mother Tongue Subjects

- 1 Private candidates can register for the O- and/or A-Level Mid-Year Examinations for Mother Tongue subjects as an extension of the Year-End examination. For these subjects, private candidates can choose to register for the Mid-Year or the Year-End examination during the March registration period. Private candidates who register for the Mid-Year examination can apply to re-sit the written papers for these subjects by registering for the Year-End examination after the release of Mid-Year results. Candidates will be advised on the registration procedures when they receive their Mid-Year results. Candidates who sit the Mid-Year examination, regardless of whether they offer any subject in the Year-End examination, will receive only one result slip and certificate reflecting all the subjects that they have offered in the year. If they sit their Mother Tongue subject during both the Mid-Year and Year-End examinations, the better result of the two sittings will be reflected in the result slip and the certificate.

- 2 The Mid-Year Mother Tongue subjects are as follow:

O-Level	1162 Chinese /1132 Malay /1142 Tamil
A-Level	8634 Chinese (Revised) /8635 Malay /8637 Tamil

- 3 As the Mid-Year examination has been scheduled on 30 May 2011, private candidates who wish to sit the Mid-Year Mother Tongue examination have to register between 7 Mar 2011 and 19 Mar 2011 so as to enable SEAB to process the registration and notify all private candidates on time. Should private candidates miss the registration period, they can only register for Mother Tongue examination for the Year-End examination.

1 MISCELLANEOUS INSTRUCTIONS

- 1.1 The 24-hour clock is used to indicate time in the timetable. For example, 8.00 a.m. will be indicated as 0800h and 2.30 p.m. as 1430h.
- 1.2 The duration of each paper includes the time for reading the questions, studying the maps, etc.
- 1.3 If two papers offered by a candidate are scheduled to be examined at the same time, arrangements will be made for the candidate to take one paper first, followed by a break before he/she takes the next paper.
- 1.4 All candidates are required to be seated at their assigned desks at least fifteen minutes before the commencement of the examination.
- 1.5 Candidates who are late will not be given extra time.
- 1.6 Candidates are required to place their NRIC or foreign identification documents on their desks throughout the duration of the examination. They are also required to have their Entry Proofs with them.
- 1.7 Candidates must inform the invigilator immediately if :
 - (a) they are issued a question paper they have not entered for, OR
 - (b) they are issued a question paper that does not contain the number of pages or questions specified on the cover page, OR
 - (c) they are issued a question paper not scheduled to take place at that time, OR
 - (d) they are not issued supplementary materials (such as graph paper, map or drawing paper) stated in the question paper
- 1.8 Candidates are required to write their names, centre numbers, index numbers and the subject titles on the first sheet/cover page of their answer scripts. If loose writing paper is used, they should also write their names, centre numbers and index numbers on every sheet.
- 1.9 Candidates with hanyu pinyin names are required to write both their statutory and hanyu pinyin names, with the hanyu pinyin names in brackets. Candidates without hanyu pinyin names need only write their statutory names.
- 1.10 Candidates are required to submit their answers in the language in which the question paper is set, unless otherwise instructed in the rubric of the questions.
- 1.11 Candidates are required to bring their own writing and mathematical instruments such as calculators, set-squares, compasses, protractors and rulers, as these will not be supplied.
- 1.12 Besides the necessary stationery required in the examination, candidates are generally not allowed to bring in any other materials unless it is specified explicitly in the particular syllabuses. For example, calculators are allowed for some papers.
- 1.13 Candidates are not required to copy the questions they are attempting. They need only write clearly the question numbers (including the alpha character, if any) in the left margin of the writing paper. No answers should be written in the left and right margins of the writing paper.
- 1.14 Unless stated in the instructions, candidates should leave two lines between the answers to consecutive questions or consecutive parts of a question.
- 1.15 Candidates should write on both sides of the writing paper unless otherwise specified in the instructions.
- 1.16 Candidates should not, at any time, fold their writing paper. Candidates should not divide the page into columns.

- 1.17 At the end of a paper, candidates should stop writing immediately when told to do so by the invigilator. If writing paper is used, they should arrange their answers in the numerical sequence of the questions, with the smallest number on top.
- 1.18 The answer scripts, together with the cover page provided, should be tied together at the top left-hand corner with the string that will be provided.
- 1.19 Candidates should remain seated at their respective desks while the answer scripts are collected.
- 1.20 No candidates may leave the examination room before the scheduled time unless permitted by the invigilator.
- 1.21 In compliance with Cambridge International Examinations' policy, question papers of some A-Level and O-Level subjects must be returned to the invigilators at the end of each paper and kept securely for at least 24 hrs. Candidates are required to write their names, centre numbers and index numbers at the top right-hand corner of the cover page of the question papers so that they can obtain the question papers from the Chief Presiding Examiner the following day.

Arrangements on the use of approved dictionaries for A-Level papers:

- 4.9 The following arrangements on the use of approved dictionaries have to be complied with for the following GCE A-Level papers :

For papers marked with '*':

Question Paper will be issued in 2 parts:

- Part 1 consists of Composition/Letter-writing and Part 2 consists of Comprehension and Language Usage.
- Dictionaries can only be used in Part 1 of the paper.
- Part 1 will be issued to candidates first. The duration for Part 1 is 1 hr 30 mins.
- At the end of Part 1, there will be a short break of 15 min.
- During the admin break, candidates should remain seated. However, they will be instructed to remove their dictionaries and place them on the floor.
- During the admin break, Part 2 will be issued to candidates. Candidates are allowed to read the questions in Part 2 or go through their answers in Part 1 during the admin break but they are not allowed to write. After the admin break, candidates may either answer Part 2 straightaway or continue with Part 1 without using the dictionaries.
- The duration for Part 2 is 1 hr 30 mins.
- The total time for the examination remains at 3 hrs excluding the 15 min admin break.

For papers marked with '#':

- The arrangements for candidates who use dictionaries in Part 1 of Paper 1 (Composition/Letter writing) will be the same as those for papers marked with '*'.
- The only difference is that the duration for Part 1 is 1 hr 15 mins and for Part 2 is 1 hr 45 mins.
- The total time for examination remains at 3 hrs excluding the 15 min admin break.

For papers marked with '+':

- The arrangements for candidates who use dictionaries in their Composition will be the same as those for papers marked with '*'.
- The duration for Part 1 of Paper 1 is 1 hr 30 mins and for Part 2 is 1 hr 10 mins.
- The total time for the examination is 2 hrs 40 mins excluding the 15 min admin break.

18 ART

- 18.1 Candidates will be supplied with drawing paper. Candidates should provide their own drawing boards, drawing pins, paints (a quick-drying medium should be used for the examination), brushes, ink, pens, erasers, water jars, fixative or varnishes and other drawing and painting materials.
- 18.2 Candidates who wish to use tracing papers for design outcomes or as a printing/collage should bring their own supply. The tracing papers must be completely blank and cannot be used to trace the preparatory studies directly.
- 18.3 The drawing papers supplied are of A3 size (42 cm by 30 cm) and A2 size (42 cm by 60 cm) for GCE O- and A-Levels. However, candidates are allowed to use their own paper of a different colour, texture and size, subject to a minimum size of 42 cm by 30 cm (A3 size) and maximum size of 42 cm by 60 cm (A2 size). Candidates must adhere to this minimum and maximum size in order to avoid compromising their exam work during shipping.
- 18.4 Candidates who use their own paper have to submit the papers to the Chief Presiding Examiner for verification at the start of the examination. Papers must not have been worked on prior to the examination such as previously coloured, dyed and/or textured by the candidate. Papers must be entirely blank except for the candidate's name, centre and index number, which should be written on the top right hand corner of the front of the paper.
- 18.5 Candidates may use any medium they consider suitable for their work. However, candidates are reminded to use a quick-drying medium for painting to ensure that their work is dry before submission. A fixative should be applied if the painting or drawing is likely to smudge.

O-Level Private Candidates

- 18.6 Candidates offering 6031/1 (Design Study) may bring their own paper (e.g. commercially bought coloured or textured paper etc.) if they choose not to use the plain white paper supplied. However, these papers must not be smaller than the minimum size of 42 cm by 30 cm (A3 size) and no larger than the maximum size of 42 cm by 60 cm (A2 size). The paper must not be pre-cut or prepared in specific shapes etc. prior to the examination.
- 18.7 Candidates must submit only materials in two-dimensional form in both the preparatory studies and the final examination piece. All materials must be securely and permanently fixed to the preparatory studies. Candidates are not permitted to remove any material(s) from their preparatory studies during the examination. The preparatory studies must not be mounted, framed or covered in plastic. All preparatory studies should be either drawn directly or securely pasted onto A3 sheets of paper. Dangerous or hazardous materials must not be included in the preparatory studies. Such materials may be confiscated by the Subject Supervisor based on his/her judgment, to ensure the safety of all candidates and their examination submissions.
- 18.8 Candidates must produce their preparatory studies and all materials for verification and approval by the Subject Supervisor before entering the examination room. Candidates who bring in materials or preparatory studies not verified and approved by the Subject Supervisor will be deemed to have contravened examination rules (refer to paragraph 6, page 43).
- 18.9 Candidates are permitted to bring the preparatory studies into the examination room. However, candidates may not copy or remove items from the preparatory studies to insert or transfer onto their final examination piece. Candidates are not permitted to bring in loose materials (e.g. photographs, print-outs, magazine cuttings etc.) with the intention of visual reference, materials for the final examination piece or to continue work on the preparatory studies during the three hour Art examination.
- 18.10 Candidates must ensure that all sheets of preparatory studies are clearly labelled with the candidate's name, centre/index number and question number on the top right hand corner on the front of the preparatory studies. The sheets must also be securely fastened on the top left-hand corner of the preparatory studies with the string provided. Staples, clips, rings or binders are not permitted for securing the preparatory studies together for submission.

- 18.11 Question papers for the following Art Papers will be issued to the candidate 3 weeks in advance of their respective examination dates. Candidates should refer to the 'Instructions to Candidates' document for the examination requirements of each paper before they begin their response to the chosen task.

- 18.12 Candidates offering Paper 1 and 2 of Art (6031) will be required to sit for these papers at Centralised Centres. They will be informed of their Centralised Centres by end Sep 2011.
- 18.13 Candidates offering 6031/1 MUST submit preparatory studies not amounting to more than eight A2 sheets of paper. Work on the preparatory studies can only be made on one side of each sheet of paper.
- 18.14 Candidates offering 6031/2 MUST submit preparatory studies of three to five A3 sheets of paper. Work on the preparatory studies can be made on both sides of each sheet of paper.
- 18.15 Writing papers will be issued on request for 6031/3, if required.
- 18.16 For Paper 3, unless otherwise notified, candidates will sit their examination at the normal examination centres as indicated in their entry proofs.

A-Level Private Candidates

- 18.17 Candidates offering 9763/2 and 9763/3 are permitted to bring their preparatory studies into the examination room. However, candidates may not copy or remove items from the preparatory studies to insert or transfer onto their final examination piece. Candidates who are submitting more than one sheet of preparatory studies must ensure that all sheets are clearly labelled with the candidate's name, centre/index number and question number on the top right hand corner on the front of the preparatory studies. The sheets must also be securely fastened on the top left-hand corner with a string.
- 18.18 For both 9763/2 and 9763/3, candidates may bring appropriate selected specimens or objects into the examination room to study. The suitability of the specimen(s) object(s) must be verified by the Subject Supervisor prior to the examination itself. Unauthorised or hazardous materials will be confiscated and will not be returned to candidates. Books may not be brought into the examination room as reference materials.
- 18.19 Question papers for the following H2 Art Papers will be issued to candidates 3 weeks in advance of their respective examination dates. Candidates should refer to the 'Instructions to Candidates' document for the examination requirements of each paper before they begin their response to the chosen task.
